

2022 Higher Education Research Funding

Request for Proposals

FEMA Higher Education Program
fema-hiedproposals@fema.dhs.gov

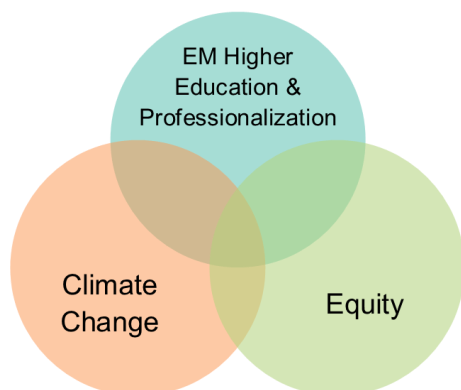

Open: March 9–April 22, 2022

NTED's Higher Education Program (HiEd) will fund competitive research proposals from qualified candidates that examine real world complex problems and provide actionable recommendations to advance the discipline of emergency management.

For a proposal to be considered it must: (1) come from individuals or teams currently associated with an institute of higher education, (2) align with the 2022-2026 FEMA Strategic Plan, the National Research Agenda, or Next Generation Core Competencies, and (3) follow the template format for submission.

Research Topics

Proposals must fall under one or more of the following research areas:
